OUR MISSION

The mission of the Silicon Valley Leadership Group is to engage CEOs and senior officers, who compete in a global economy, in proactive, positive efforts that strengthen Silicon Valley and America's competitiveness for the innovation economy, as well as benefit the employees, families, and communities in which our member company employees live and work.

OUR VISION AND VALUES

The Silicon Valley Leadership Group works to be the most effective regional public policy association in the United States, cost-effectively driving proactive public policy, programs, and project solutions at the national, state, regional, and local levels of government and for the Bay Area communities in which our member companies conduct business.
